By GEORGE LEONOF

IT remained for the Republican Senator, Mr. Styles Bridges, to supply the key to the recent spate of confusing and contradictory statements regarding U.S. policy on Indo-China. Emerging from a meeting with the Secretary of State on Tuesday, at which Mr. Dulles briefed 15 congressional leaders on American policy, the Senator — himself apparently freshly de-confused — expressed agreement with Mr. Dulles that one weakness of democracy is to show its hand before important negotiations with the Soviet bloc. This time, he added significantly, the West was not going to display its "full hand" before Geneva. He would say no more.

IT is an open secret, however, that President Eisenhower's assurance that the U.S. has no intention of sending troops to Indo-China was received with greater relief among American allies than in certain influential circles at home. Domestic critics, while not necessarily opposed to the policy per se, argued that such categorical public pronouncements needlessly revealed to friend and foe alike the extent of America's self-imposed restrictions in the military field and that whitewashed her bargaining power at the conference table. Vice-President Nixon's trial balloon released over the direction of the French withdrawal from Indo-China might compel the U.S. to send troops there after all — seems to have been aimed at blasting whatever complacency may have existed on this score. It is open to question, however, whether his aim was true, for there is more evidence that the blast created a greater degree of confusion in Britain and France than where it was supposed to have its most affecting effect.

INDEED, one might well imagine Moscow and Peking, far from being confused, as a corroboration of what their radios have been consistently claiming these last weeks — that America is increasing her intervention in Indo-China with the ultimate intention of taking over from the French the command of the Vietnam. As for the British and French Governments, they have been hard put to reassure their parliamentary opposition that America has no intention of wrecking the Geneva talks and that the West will explore all avenues to a negotiated settlement in Indo-China. It is true that Mr. Dulles has said as much — both before and after his call to a joint press conference with Mr. Nixon — but no less yesterday, five days after he mentioned the possibility of sending U.S. troops to Indo-China; it is just that any attempt to reconcile these contradictory statements with the terms of the Geneva agreement inevitably leads to suspicion and doubt where there should be none. There can be little satisfaction in a policy of keeping Peking guessing as to what prompts such men as Mr. Aneurin Bevan to guess, with Freud, that America is sponsoring the hostile encirclement of China.

THERE need be no fears that the West will come to the Geneva conference with an integrated policy, even if the military committee, Mr. J. Parnell Thomas, suffered a sharp defeat in an attempt to force a military commitment. Mr. Thomas received only a fraction of the vote in New York's Seventh Congressional District primary election against the incumbent, Representative William B. Widnall. Mr. Thomas campaigned on a "pro-Congress" platform.

New Law Drafted For Syrian Political Parties
The Syrian Government has drafted a new party law in place of the legislation under the shaky regime which outlawed all political factions, NEABS asserted.

The major provision in the new bill is that every group must be based on democratic principles, not only in its constitution and its internal administration and activities.

Arabs Ready to Settle On Basis of 1948 Resolution
NEW YORK, Wednesday (INA). The Egyptian Ambassador to the U.S., Ahmed Hussein, said here last night that he believed the Arab States were ready to settle their dispute with Israel, if Israel accepted the 1948 U.N. resolutions as a basis for discussion.

On his arrival in New York, Hussein declared that the burning question in Israel-Arab relations was the refugee problem, which should be solved not only for military but also for humanitarian purposes.

Soviets Demand Petrov Back On Criminal Count

CANBERRA, Wednesday (Reuter). — Australia's reply to Russia's demand for the return of Mr. Vladimir Petrov, refugee diplomat, as a "criminal" forger and thief will be to ask for particulars of his thefts, it was announced tonight by the Prime Minister, Mr. R. G. Menzies.

The Russian note to the Ministry of External Affairs claimed that for several months Mr. Petrov had been misappropriating large sums of State money by forgery, and said that the documents he had given to Australian authorities may be a forgery.

"From the moment of Petrov's departure from the Embassy I had been eagerly awaiting charges of theft and forgery, these being strictly to the pattern of the Gouzenko case in Canada," Mr. Menzies said.

Notes Contradiction
The Australian people will not be slow to appreciate that this allegation completely contradicts the first story that Petrov was kidnapped by the Australian authorities and thus broke up a Soviet spy ring and the imprisonment of Dr. Brown, a Soviet spy, and Klaus Fuchs, British atomic scientist. The Soviet Embassy, in a letter to the Canadian Department of External Affairs three days after the capture of the spy, said that Gouzenko was "a capital criminal" and demanded his return for deportation to Russia.

Mr. E. K. Petrov, heavily veiled, flew from Darwin today in an Australian Dakota to join her husband in his secret hiding place in South Australia. Under a stormy sky, she emerged from Government House, holding a newspaper in front of her face. A police car drove her to the airport in teeming rain.

France Blames India In Dispute on Enclaves

PARIS, Wednesday (UP). — The French Government today charged that India had "gravely compromised the social and economic life" of the French enclaves in Indo-China. The French-Foreign Minister, Georges Bidault, said in a statement that the Indian Ambassador in Paris, Sardar Bhabha, had made "savage and unprovoked" statements on the possibility of sending U.S. troops to Indo-China; it is just that any attempt to reconcile these contradictory statements with the terms of the Geneva agreement inevitably leads to suspicion and doubt where there should be none. There can be little satisfaction in a policy of keeping Peking guessing as to what prompts such men as Mr. Aneurin Bevan to guess, with Freud, that America is sponsoring the hostile encirclement of China.

Pro-McCarthy Candidate Beaten in Primary Vote

NEWARK, Wednesday (UP). — The former member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, Mr. J. Parnell Thomas, suffered a sharp defeat in an attempt to force a military commitment. Mr. Thomas received only a fraction of the vote in New York's Seventh Congressional District primary election against the incumbent, Representative William B. Widnall. Mr. Thomas campaigned on a "pro-Congress" platform.

USSR Cuts Defence Budget by 10%

MOSCOW, Wednesday (Reuter). — The Government today presented the Supreme Soviet with a 1954 budget, (about 150,243m. rubles) reducing defence costs by about 10% in favour of greater social benefits.

The sum allocated for defence this year is 100,000m. rubles. This was stated to be 17.8% of the total budget against 25.8% in 1953 and 23.6% in 1952.

Mr. Arseni Zverev, the Finance Minister, delivered his budget speech in the brilliantly lit assembly hall of the Grand Kremlin Palace. Before the 1,347 deputies dispersed after the morning session, they received a letter from Mr. Georgi Malenkov, the Prime Minister, tendering the resignation of his Government. This formality is laid down by the Soviet Constitution when the Supreme Soviet meets for the first time after an election. Supreme Soviet elections were held last month.

Malenkov Cheered
Amid cheers, the Supreme Soviet, Russia's highest legislative body, called on Mr. Malenkov to continue in office on a "caretaker" basis and to form a new government.

Mr. Malenkov will announce his choice of Ministers — which may be identical with the present list — before the current Supreme Soviet session ends, probably on Saturday. He has the support of the majority of the Soviet people, and his resignation was a surprise to many. Mr. Zverev stated that estimated expenditure for the 1954 budget was 150,243m. rubles, and total revenue 171,500m. rubles.

May 1 Rehearsal

Tanks and lorries of troops rumbled through the streets of Moscow last night for the full dress rehearsal of the traditional May Day parade. The Red Square was closed to all traffic and pedestrians. The parade was held in formation.

Traditional May Day slogans lined last night by the Communist Party gave place to the call for workers "to struggle against German militarism." This slogan was fourth in the list after three general slogans on workers' fraternity and peace. This was considered by observers here to mirror the Soviet Government's current preoccupation with the fear of a revived German army.

Artons Arrive to Settle; Ask Only Fair, Impartial Treatment
TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — Mr. Peter Arton, 32, who was under arrest for about a month in England in connection with allegations that he was in illegal contact with the Czech Government, arrived at Lydda Airport today accompanied by his wife, Claudia, whom he married yesterday before flying here upon his release from detention.

Minister Resigns In Japan Graft Scandal

TOKYO, Wednesday (Reuter). — Japan's Minister of Justice, Kenjiro Umezu, announced that he had submitted his resignation because the Government had ordered him to stop the arrest of two senior members of the governing Liberal Party.

Mr. Umezu said that he had power to suspend the arrest of the two Liberals but "I say this power should not be used, because it will set a precedent influencing the future."

His resignation followed a meeting of senior officials of the Procurator's Office to discuss the possible arrest of the two Liberals in connection with current bribery scandals. Scores of government officials and business executives have been arrested for conspiring to misuse government funds allocated for ship-building and transportation subsidies.

The right-wing Socialist Party issued a statement yesterday charging that Premier Yoshida had dismissed the Justice Minister in an attempt to stop the procurator's investigations. It said that this act "had deepened widespread suspicion in the country that the Government is trying to put pressure on the procurator's activities through the Justice Minister."

Newspapers have claimed that if the two Liberals had been arrested it would have resulted in the downfall of the Cabinet. Meanwhile, nearly 500,000 school-teachers are expected to go on a hunger strike soon to protest against the passage of two education bills designed to restrict political activities by school-teachers.

Japan Red Cross Asks Int'l H-Bomb Control

TOKYO, Wednesday (Reuter). — The Japanese Red Cross today called for international control of atomic energy, restrictions of its use for peaceful purposes and the prevention of damage arising from nuclear tests.

At the same time it was announced that four or five of the 23 Japanese fishermen injured by "death ash" from the American H-bomb test at Bikini on May 1 may die if their condition does not improve within two weeks. Dr. Yoshio Mikawa, the senior physician attending the injured fishermen, said that they were receiving regular blood transfusions, "but this could not last indefinitely."

Another report from Tokyo says that 30 rescuees recently imported from Australia in a ship which had passed about 1,500 km. from the test area had been found to be radioactive. The radioactivity, however, was described as harmless.

Iraqi Gov't Quits Following Row With Opposition

The Iraqi Cabinet of Dr. Fadhil al-Jamali resigned last night. According to NEABS, King Faisal II has not yet accepted Dr. Jamali's resignation.

It follows yesterday's walk-out of 11 opposition members from the Chamber of Deputies after charging Dr. Jamali with being responsible for the flood damage. The Premier accused the opposition deputies of being Communists who were more concerned with their own interests than those of the country.

If Dr. Jamali's resignation is accepted, King Faisal is expected to ask another veteran politician, Jamal Abass, to form a new government.

USSR Suggests Byroad Speech Be Re-Read

The United States Information Service, in a local release issued in Tel Aviv yesterday, noted that the address of Mr. Henry Byroad, U.S. Assistant Secretary of State, was unfavourably received both in Israel and the Arab States.

Actually, the release stated, in setting forth the U.S. Government's position on the Arab-Israeli dispute, the State Department has made it clear that the address represents U.S. policy. "Accordingly," it adds, "it was suggested that the whole speech be re-read in its entirety, since U.S. policy is represented not by one or the other single paragraph but by the whole address."

Britain Answers Jordan Note on Obligations

AMMAN, Wednesday (Reuter). — Britain has replied to Jordan's note of April 5, which emphasized British obligations under the 1948 friendship treaty between the two countries. The Deputy Premier Said al-Mufti announced today.

In a statement after a Cabinet meeting at which the British note was discussed, al-Mufti said that the reply was "satisfactory."

Jordan sent her note after the British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, had told the Commons last month that Jordan's tension at the time of the first to be held in the new Israeli Embassy premises.

Elath Sees Alien On Security Council Debate

LONDON, Wednesday (INA). — The Israeli Ambassador to Britain, Mr. Elath, said today that he would see the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, on the subject of the current Security Council debate.

On May 6, Mr. Elath will give an Independence Day reception to the British Prime Minister, Mr. Winston Churchill, at the new Israeli Embassy premises.

Egyptians in Gaza Harass Israelis

Egyptians in the Gaza Strip fired at Israeli patrols three times in the last two days. The first incident took place in the morning near Yagor and the second in the evening near Beer.

The Army spokesman has announced that an Israeli unit patrolling along the Gaza Strip at 5.15 p.m. yesterday afternoon was fired upon from across the border. No casualties were reported.

China Would Act If US Enters War

TOKYO, Wednesday (UP). — People's China said today that if the U.S. actively entered the Indo-China war, the Chinese people "would do something about it," according to a Peking Radio broadcast monitored here.

"We do not make aggression on others," the broadcast said, "and we are firmly opposed to the aggressive methods of others. We do not interfere in the internal affairs of others, and are firmly opposed to their interfering in the internal affairs of any other nation."

The broadcast added that U.S. leaders were using "every despicable means to slander China."

In Hanoi, meanwhile, the Government of North Vietnam, Nguyen Huu Tzu, stated that his country did not want to become another Korea. He believed, however, that the U.S. could have "sympathetic and impartial friendship" for both sides.

It adds, however, that the State Department has made it clear that the address represents U.S. policy. "Accordingly," it adds, "it was suggested that the whole speech be re-read in its entirety, since U.S. policy is represented not by one or the other single paragraph but by the whole address."

Dulles Begins Talks On Common Policy

PARIS, Wednesday. — The U.S. Secretary of State, Mr. John Foster Dulles, arrived in Europe today for the second time in his tenure as Secretary of State. He is expected to continue working out "an effective common defense" in the face of a common danger.

Mr. Dulles, here for pre-Geneva strategy talks and to attend the NATO ministerial conference opening on Friday, was greeted by Foreign Minister Georges Bidault at Orly Airport.

Among the French officials conferring with Mr. Bidault and Mr. Dulles at the Embassy were Mr. Maurice Schumann, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and French Permanent NATO delegate, Mr. Hervé Alphand.

A French Foreign Ministry spokesman said that any proposal by Mr. Dulles to restrict the duration of the Geneva conference in advance would be unwelcome to the French Government. France intended to go to Geneva to do everything possible to reach an agreement on ending the hostilities in Indo-China.

Prior to his departure from Washington last night, Mr. Dulles promised to seek an "honourable" peace in Indo-China and a free, united Korea.

The Secretary of State said that he would oppose an expected Soviet move to turn the Geneva meeting on Far Eastern issues into a "Big Five" meeting on world problems. The U.S. view, he stated, was that specific problems should be tackled one by one as a means of testing Soviet good faith.

Several hours after Mr. Dulles spoke at the airport in Washington, Vice-President Richard Nixon told the annual Founders' Dinner at the University of Cincinnati that the U.S. would welcome a negotiated peace in Indo-China as long as it was "honourable" and not a surrender to China.

Last Friday, Mr. Nixon created considerable international controversy by announcing a statement that the U.S. might have to send troops to Indo-China in the event that France would withdraw from the country. Yesterday, he said that the U.S. Administration had sought to develop a policy which would keep the U.S. from having to send American troops to Indo-China or elsewhere. He added that a policy of strength and united action had the best chance of achieving this goal. (UP, Reuter)

S Planes Fly Paratroops; De Castries Asks for Relief

PARIS, Wednesday. — American Air Force transport planes are on their way to Indo-China with 1,000 French paratroopers on board to reinforce the beleaguered garrison of Dien Bien Phu, officials said here tonight.

Franco-Vietnamese Accord Said Nearer

PARIS, Wednesday (Reuter). — Vietnamese officials negotiating with the French Government for their country's independence stated today that the draft political agreement met Vietnam's requirements for complete sovereignty.

Informed quarters said that France had abandoned her demand that the subjects of Vietnamese independence and her association with the French Union should be covered under a single treaty. They added that the political agreement which the delegations are concluding would consist of two separate treaties, one granting Vietnam total independence and one setting out the terms of association of the two countries on a basis of complete equality within the French Union.

Both French and Vietnamese officials were confident tonight that the basic agreement would be ready for signature before the start of the Geneva conference on Monday. Nevertheless, after six weeks of negotiations, details on military, economic, legal and cultural relations between the two countries remain to be worked out.

Top Commonwealth Leaders Consult

LONDON, Wednesday (Reuter). — The British, Canadian and Australian Foreign Ministers today conferred for the second time in their tenure as Foreign Ministers on problems associated with next week's Geneva conference.

The Australian External Affairs Minister, Mr. Richard Casey, earlier today had visited the Ministry of Defence to confer on Commonwealth defence questions with Earl Alexander, the Defence Minister.

The Canadian External Affairs Minister, Mr. Lester Pearson, was due to leave London for Paris today where he will attend a one-day meeting of the Council of Ministers on the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation on Friday.

The Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, will include Mr. Humphrey Trevelyan, British Charge d'Affaires in Peking, in his delegation to the Geneva conference. The Foreign Office today named a 20-strong delegation which will include the Marquess of Reading, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs.

Eden Leaves Today
Mr. Eden leaves London tomorrow for Paris for Friday's NATO meeting and will go to Geneva on Monday.

Mr. Vyacheslav Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, will lead the delegation to the Geneva conference. It was announced tonight that other delegates will include Mr. Andrei Gromyko, Deputy Foreign Minister, Mr. Vasiliy Kuznetsov, Deputy Foreign Minister, Mr. Pavel Yudin, Soviet Ambassador to Peking, and Mr. Georgi Zarubin, Ambassador in Washington and formerly in London.

The Chinese delegation headed by Prime Minister Chou En-lai arrived by air in Moscow today and was met by Mr. Molotov and other officials.

Full Accord with Turkey on International Affairs—Tito
LONDON, Wednesday (Reuter). — President Tito returned to Yugoslavia today from his official visit to Turkey, Zagreb Radio reported. He landed at Split from the training ship Caleb.

The President, answering a welcome by the Mayor and citizens of Split, made a short speech in which he said: "It was not difficult for us to agree with the Turkish leaders on all problems connected with international policy. Therefore we were able to fulfil our mission successfully notwithstanding the efforts of all those who at present, for selfish reasons, do not want consolidation and agreement as a prelude to peace."

He added: "But we have also seen in Turkey that the people there, whatever their standing, are working consistently at consolidation. We decided to work together. We have seen their interest for our movement and we have also seen that they are — how shall I say it — for our ideas."

1,200 Beds Available In Kupat Holim Rest Homes

JERUSALEM, YACOV, Wednesday. — With the opening of the summer rest season, Kupat Holim has at its members' disposal this year some 1,200 beds in seven rest homes and 200 beds in its sanatorium. It was revealed here today on a press tour of "Beit Remez," Kupat Holim's newest and finest rest home.

Operating at a considerable loss, accommodations at the rest homes are offered at a maximum IL5,500 per day. This sum is usually covered substantially by social security and sick funds.

For the summer season, Kupat Holim is shortly to close its winter rest homes on the shores of Lake Kinneret. From the beginning of June, the four-month summer rest that no couples are accepted in Kupat Holim rest homes is to be applied. This procedure, a spokesman explained, is aimed merely at providing "simple justice" as the pressure on the rest homes is enormous and it is the health fund's policy to accommodate as many members of different families as possible. Kupat Holim's rest and convalescent homes have an annual turnover of about 80,000 persons, while there are some half million adult Histadrut members.

Burg Asks Coordinated Fund Raising Drives

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — Dr. Yosef Burg, the Minister of Posts, said here today that he thought a Special Committee of Ministers should be set up to plan and coordinate the activities of the appeals and Bond Drives in each country.

He was addressing a press conference at which he described his recent fund-raising and investment-raising tour of Europe and Latin America. During his visit, Elom, was raised for the Bond Drive, of which Elom was in charge. The Minister thought that new embassies should be sent to Latin America for the Bond Drive there, and that those who had formerly worked for the United Jewish Appeal should not be pressed into service for the investment drive. While in Brazil, Dr. Burg had met a number of persons who had emigrated from Israel. Most of them now wanted to return here and would do so were it not for their financial position. The women were more keen on returning than the menfolk, probably because of their worries about the future of their children.

J'lem Documentary Being Filmed

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — Work on a documentary film on Jerusalem started this week. It is being produced by the Israel Motion Picture Studios at the request of the Israel Consulate-General in New York, and is being directed by Arye Labella, with a script by Haim Hefer. An American subsidiary company of the Heredia Film Studios has now been formed to distribute films produced at the Israel studios. The first screening of a series under the title, "A Concert of Israel Films" will take place in New York on the eve of Independence Day.

M.P. Urges British Base in Negev

LYDIA AIRPORT, Wednesday. — Before returning to Britain by B.O.A.C. after eight days here at the invitation of the Government, Mr. R. L. Maitland, said he thought Israel and Britain should come to an agreement regarding the establishment of a British military base in the Negev. He said he had discussed the possibility of a Negev base with the Prime Minister and other Government officials. (Him)

Intelligence of Oriental Children Equals Native-Born

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Considerable controversy was aroused at the Third Conference of the Psychologists' Association, now meeting in Jerusalem, by Mr. D. Handel, a psychologist, whose thesis was that Oriental children are not different in intellectual capacity from native-born children and those from Oriental countries.

During psychotechnic tests of 350 native-born and 250 immigrants, he observed no significant pattern in the results. If variations in background were taken into account, he further stated that the normal European and American intelligence test could be used with Oriental children.

Yesterday's sessions, held at Terra Sancta, included two lectures on the subject of the Vocational Guidance Division. Rav-Seren Eliezer Karni, head of the Division, reported favorably on the value of initial selection of recruits undertaken by personnel without psychological training. In selecting Air Force candidates, Seren Moshe Rivlin, a psychologist, said that correlation of results had been reached between performance of men in psychotechnic tests and later performance in the army. These tests, used for five years, will gradually be incorporated in the selection programme.

A psychologist from the Civil Service Commission described recent trials of "situation tests" on Government officials with psychologists observing their reaction and checking it with their behaviour towards actual problems.

The afternoon session was divided into two parallel series of lectures which covered the adjustment of immigrants, the care of delinquent juveniles, and analysis in the army and the development of new testing methods.

The evening session was devoted to professional discussion of case histories and clinical practice.

Livneh Case Makes Headlines

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — A controversy between Mr. Eliezer Livneh, Mayor of Haifa, and the Control Commission of Mapai over the right of Mr. Livneh to occupy the house he had built in Jerusalem made headlines in the afternoon newspapers today. The paper published the full text of a letter Mr. Livneh had sent to the Control Commission, November 8, 1953, protesting the Commission's injunction that he could not take possession of his new house because it was too luxurious for a labour representative.

The Commission, it is understood, found that Mr. Livneh's residence had all been lawfully obtained, but felt that the house was cumbersome and not in line with the Party's insistence on the simple life.

In his published letter, Mr. Livneh contends that the Control Commission acted on false principles. Thousands of persons in public service, he said, were living under conditions similar to his, and were maintained from public funds. A thinker or any man in public life must devote all his savings to ensure for himself good working conditions. He added that he would not vacate the house he had built out of modesty and inheritance, as prescribed by the Commission.

Haifa to Have United May Day Parade

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — May Day celebrations of the Histadrut are to differ this year according to individual towns. So far, Haifa seems to be the only major town in which a unified Histadrut-sponsored demonstration will be held.

In Tel Aviv, a similar demonstration was scheduled but was cancelled as Mapai insisted on having a separate meeting in the evening. In no arrangement is reached with Mapai, that party is likely to hold its own demonstration on Sunday.

A mass meeting only is planned for Jerusalem. The Communists' plans are as yet uncertain.

STUDY SHOWS HOW CEMENT MISUSED

HAIFA, Wednesday. — The Building Research Station at the Technion, Haifa, has completed a study of the misuse of cement in the construction of buildings in Haifa. The study was carried out by a team of engineers and architects, and the results show that a large amount of cement is wasted in the construction of buildings in Haifa.

The investigation, conducted at several actual building projects, revealed that various methods of marketing crushed aggregate and production of concrete at the building sites contribute to a lowering of the strength of concrete and to wasting large amounts of cement.

By way of specific suggestions for improving the quality and ensuring better control, the booklet lists several pertinent factors. It is estimated that no less than 25 per cent of cement could be saved were these suggestions put into effect. In 1953, this would have saved about 15,000 tons of cement.

Doctors Threaten To Strike on Tuesday

The Israel Medical Association met this week to hold a strike of salaried physicians, commencing with the 200 Government-employed doctors, and ending with the 200 private doctors, unless their wage-claims meet with a hearing.

But it appears most unlikely that the State doctors' walk-out, scheduled for April 27, will take place then. The Prime Minister promised the Association to raise its grievances at the next Cabinet meeting, and the Association has agreed to postpone its strike until after the Cabinet meeting.

The shooting started when a group of Peronist supporters interrupted the Radical rally.

204 Scandinavian Pilgrims Arrive in Former Krupp Yacht

Jerusalem Post Reporter

HAIFA, Wednesday. — The 1,600-ton Norwegian s.s. Brand V, which was built in Germany in 1923 as a private yacht for Alfred Krupp, the munitions manufacturer, arrived here with 204 Norwegian and Danish pilgrims and tourists this morning.

The visitors' Middle East tour was organized by the Norwegian Y.M.C.A. They were welcomed here by Pastor P. F. Hansen, of the Scandinavian Seamen's Church, and Mr. S. Bar-Shalom, of the Tourist Centre.

They will stay here for five days, accompanied by only one or two days at other ports of call in their four-week tour. Last year, the same company's s.s. Brand V, which was built in 1923, was one of the pilgrim ships.

The ship, after being built for Krupp, changed hands several times and was once owned by the Russian Emperor, who kept a car in the room now used for a dining hall. During the war, the ship was used as a hospital ship.

Injunction Issued In Customs Guarantee Case

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — A temporary injunction to restrain the Feuchtwanger Bank in Tel Aviv from paying the Collector of Customs of Haifa on account of a IL5,000 bank guarantee was granted today to the Kaete Dan Ltd. by the District Court here.

The bank guarantee was given by the Kaete Dan in 1952 to ensure that the materials imported by the bank would be used for the construction of the Dan Hotel. As an approved enterprise the Dan Hotel was permitted to import goods and materials free of customs duties and luxury tax.

In its application to the court, the Kaete Dan claims that the purpose for which the bank guarantee was given has already been fulfilled with the delivery of the goods to the possession of the Dan Hotel.

It therefore contests a recent decision by the Collector of Customs requiring the Feuchtwanger Bank to deposit IL4,148,453 out of the IL5,000 guarantee. Kaete Dan in 1952. Kaete Dan claims that the guarantee is now null and void.

The injunction is to remain in operation for approximately one month until a declaratory judgment is given.

Eshed Member Charged With Forging Tickets

HAIFA, Wednesday. — A printing plant and paper for forging Eshed bus tickets was discovered in the house of a veteran member of the cooperative in Haifa this week.

The Eshed management's suspicions were first aroused when a ticket inspector found two tickets with the same number during a routine inspection on a bus which the member was driving. After the management had investigated the matter, the police were informed and a criminal file was opened on the driver.

Pickpocket Picks Wrong Pocket

TEL AVIV, Wednesday. — A 26-year-old Tiberias pickpocket who apparently decided that business was slack, came to Tel Aviv and tried his luck at the Central Bus Station here today.

He was arrested on his first attempt when he was caught with a plain-clothes policeman on duty at the station.

6 Wounded in Argentine Electoral Meeting

BUENOS AIRES, Wednesday. — Six persons, including three policemen and a Radical Deputy, were wounded today, during a 10-minute shooting affray at a Radical (opposition) Party electoral meeting at Esmeralda, about 60 kms. south-east of the Argentine capital.

The shooting started when a group of Peronist supporters interrupted the Radical rally.

Unofficial Israel, Jordan Talks Asked

Jerusalem Post Reporter

LONDON, Wednesday (INA). — A proposal for a conference to be attended by representatives of Israel, the neighbouring Arab states and the three Western Powers, has been made unofficially in London, according to "The Times" diplomatic correspondent. The correspondent would discuss this conference would discuss the direct border disputes between Israel and her neighbours.

The paper pointed out that Jordan's refusal to enter into talks with Israel under Article XII of the Armistice Agreement was based mainly on the fear that such negotiations might lead to a deterioration of her diplomatic position. On the other hand, she would be ready to participate in a meeting that would discuss the direct border disputes between Israel and her neighbours.

At the same time, Jordan has asked for British assistance in this matter in accordance with the 1943 treaty between the two countries. During the past two weeks there have been exchanges of views between London and Amman on this issue.

The British view, however, is that a way must be found to renew the direct contact between Israel and Jordan which was broken when Israel walked out of the Mixed Armistice Commission. (Leader, Page 4)

Indonesia Refuses Visas To Israel Delegates

JAKARTA, Indonesia, Wednesday (UP). — The refusal of the Indonesian Government to issue visas to two Israeli delegates was the principal reason for the Asian Socialist Conference being transferred from Bandung to Rangoon, Burma, it was disclosed today.

The conference will be held from April 29 to May 2. The Indonesian Foreign Ministry announced that it had feared that the presence of Israel delegates might have caused trouble because of the Israeli-Arab differences. Although the Government maintained that it had acted on behalf of Indonesian Muslims, an official of the Muslim Front was among the first to protest against the action. The Indonesian Socialist Party also criticized the Government decision. Particularly in view of the fact that Australian and Dutch Communists were being allowed to speak throughout Indonesia.

COMMUNISTS. — Nearly 200 British and Commonwealth Communists met in Central London yesterday for a four-day conference of Party representatives in the sphere of British Imperialism.

In the presence of many leaders of Polish Jewry and survivors of the ghetto battle, Mayor Wagner declared: "The battle in the streets of the Warsaw ghetto proves that people all over the earth will always give their lives for the cause of freedom."

Russians Appear At UNESCO Meeting

THE HAGUE, Wednesday (UP). — Seven Russian delegates arrived today for the opening of a conference of the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, only a few hours after the Soviet Union had finally joined the organization.

UNESCO. The Soviet Union, Soviet Union, Byelorussia and the Ukraine. The present conference, at which 35 nations are represented, will draw up a Convention for the Protection of National and Art Treasures in wartime. It is designed to replace the now obsolete Hague Convention of 1907. The UNESCO Director-General, Dr. Luther Adams, opened the conference. The Dutch delegate, Mr. C. W. A. Schurman, was elected President.

The Soviet delegates immediately set off a lively debate by demanding that East Germany and the Chinese People's Republic be invited to participate in the conference. The Soviet motion was overruled.

END OF BRITISH STRIKE SAVES ISRAELI FRUIT

LONDON, Wednesday (INA). — The return of 200 striking dockers at London's Butler Wharf today, saved a cargo of Israeli oranges and grapefruit from rotting aboard the Swedish steamer Carl Gorthan. Unloading had been held up for nearly a week.
